OVERVIEW

Gulf Daily News is Bahrain's leading English language daily newspaper, published seven days a week, 365 days a year.

With a daily print circulation approaching 10,200 copies and an online readership of over 11,500 unique visitors every day, the Kingdom's most popular and respected newspaper has a total estimated readership in excess of 55,000 across a multi-national section of Bahrainis and expatriates. The majority of our readers live and work in Bahrain and in addition the newspaper reaches a number of regional and international subscribers who have a serious interest in the Kingdom's news and development.

The Gulf Daily News has the most extensive home delivery service in Bahrain. The online edition is available from 6am each day providing our readers with the flexibility of reading either the print or web editions with fully enabled mobile and tablet facilities to accommodate any device.

Editorial content is varied and detailed with local, regional and world news, current business news and global sports coverage. Regular advertising features, readers' letters, a 'Leisure' section and busy classified advertising pages all help maintain the Gulf Daily News as Bahrain's leading and most popular newspaper.

The newspaper provides the option of print or online advertising opportunities as well as bundled packages which give advertisers exceptional reach and value through a combination of print and online promotion at the same time.
